PRIVACY POLICY - EMPLOYEE

Aim

PPS is committed to the protection of personal privacy. Our commitment to privacy will be demonstrated by our adhering to the 10 National Privacy Principles as outlined in the 1988 Privacy Act.

Policy

PPS will only collect information that is relevant and necessary. The information will be collected in an unobtrusive manner directly from employees. We will also collect information from referees in the initial hiring phase of employment.

Applicants for positions

Applicants will be asked to provide certain personal details. They will at no stage be obliged to provide details. However, omission of certain details may mean we are unable to assess their suitability for the job.

Information held will only be used to assess applicant's suitability to the position. It is required so that we can organise remuneration and so we can provide appropriate care should you fall ill at work. The information will not be used for any purpose other than that for which it was collected and will only be disclosed to our insurers, the relevant banking institutions, and government bodies.

Employees

The information held for each employee will be as follows: name, date of birth, address, career details, references, tax file number, bank account details, any medical conditions or allergies, any other details relevant to the position.

Employees will at all times be allowed access to their employee file, which holds the personal information PPS holds. We will endeavour to always hold accurate, up to date and complete information. Should employees find any errors, or need to update their personal details they will be able to have the information corrected.

Employee files are to be kept locked to ensure confidentiality.

Should employees have any complaints about the privacy of their personal information discussions will be held with the General Manager.
